The Canadian Club of Calgary Welcomes 90 New Canadian Citizens

CALGARY, AB. February 14, 2017– The Canadian Club of Calgary is pleased announce that it is hosting the 2nd Annual Special Citizenship Ceremony to welcome 90 new Canadian citizens in Calgary on Wednesday, February 15, 2017.

"We are honoured to work with Citizenship and Immigration Canada to host this important ceremony and welcome 90 new people to the Canadian family. We are particularly pleased to welcome so many new Canadians as we celebrate the 150th anniversary of Canada and the 110th anniversary of our club. " said Richard Hehr, Canadian Club of Calgary President.

"The Canadian Club of Calgary will present each new citizen with a pure maple, individually wrapped Maple Leaf shaped candy, very symbolic of Canada. Following the swearing in ceremony, light refreshments and photo opportunities will be available." said Richard Hehr.

Place:

Citizenship and Immigration Canada Office
210 - 220 4th Avenue SE
Calgary, AB T2G 4X3

Everyone welcome. Visit www.canadianclubcalgary.ca for more information about the event. Seating is limited. Event begins at 1:30 p.m. (local time). Photography and video are permitted during the ceremony.
